Details announced for the fifth annual McLaren Adaptive Golf Clinic Monday, August 24 at The Ally Challenge presented by McLaren

INSPIRING EVENT WILL FEATURE MORE THAN 40 ADAPTIVE GOLFERS AND A COMPLEMENT OF NATIONALLY RENOWNED ADAPTIVE GOLF COACHES

GRAND BLANC, Mich. – The Ally Challenge presented by McLaren announced today the details surrounding the tournament’s fifth annual McLaren Adaptive Golf Clinic on Monday, August 24 at Warwick Hills Golf & Country Club. The inspiring event will take place from 9 a.m. to noon on the driving range, followed by lunch in the Miller Lite Beer Garden on Hole No. 17 and a new Coaches Challenge at 1pm also located on the tournament’s iconic par 3.

Together with McLaren Health Care and the McLaren Flint Foundation, the tournament has once again teamed up with the U.S. Adaptive Golf Alliance (USAGA) to put on a clinic featuring trained adaptive golf coaches providing instruction to a group of more than 40 adaptive golfers using a wide array of adaptive golf equipment. Attendees will range in age from 5 years old to 75 and are recruited from McLaren Health Care’s patient base as well as through USAGA, organizations such as Rehab Without Walls, and word-of-mouth. The Clinic features an atmosphere of camaraderie and support in underscoring this growing initiative in adaptive sports.

Adaptive golf is a rising movement in the sport that continues to grow the game and provide people with physical disabilities the tools and training to enjoy the game.

There is limited space available for participants in the 2026 McLaren Adaptive Golf Clinic. For more information about the Clinic, including how to participate, please contact Tracy Ramin at tracyramin@yahoo.com or Laurie Prochazka at laurie.prochazka@mclaren.org.

“Bringing people together of diverse abilities, ages, motivation, and backgrounds for a common purpose is on full display at the McLaren Adaptive Golf Clinic,” said Laurie Prochazka, vice president of community partnerships for McLaren Health Care. “McLaren is very proud to be on the forefront of building awareness of adaptive golf as a growing movement in the sport. We appreciate the support of our valued partners, including Ottobock, Bött Prosthetics, The Alexander Foundation, Claudette Wilkinson Bryant Memorial, and the Ridgway and Shannon White Fund of the Community Foundation of Greater Flint, in allowing us to expand the Clinic to reach a record amount of people this year.”

The coaches for this year’s Adaptive Golf Clinic include:

- BRIAN BEMIS: Best swing on one leg, plays without a prosthetic, representative of US Para Golf Exhibition team, G1 leg impairment golfer
